Respondents,

OFFER OF PROOF OF FELONY WARRANT
FOR SEAN COMBS ARREST IN 1997 EXISTED
BUT NEVER EXECUTED PER RESPONDENTS
ORDER TO NOT ARREST RESPONDENT SEAN COMBS

Petitioner, Derrick Lee Cardello-Smith, in the above cause, now submits this offer of proof of the felony warrant that existed in 1997 calling for the arrest of Sean Combs, but never executed based on the orders and instructions of Kym L. Worthy, respondent in this case who has destroyed this Petitioners credibility and claimed that the petitioner has provided false documentation.

This warrant is clearly a detailed warrant from the Special Section of the Detroit Records Court and filed in the 36th District Court in Detroit, Michigan, but was never executed in this matter.

This warrant supports this petitioners ongoing claims that a rape, cover-up and attempted murder of this petitioner happened and it was on the orders of he respondents working together to frame the petitioner.

I ask this court to allow this offer of proof into the court record because petitioner plans to call the parties in this case for testimony.

Thank you for your time in this matter.
